Confluence has been the way of life at Northeast during the 1968-69 school year. It has been a period of holding for all the different people involved. Many roads have flowed down their rocky streambeds to a successful meeting at the river of young life. The seniors pass from this river to an ocean of adult ideas, education, and expression. Nordlys: 1969 is a snapshot of all these small tributaries at their convergence point
 - Northeast High School.

SCHOOL BOARD

STANDING: Melvin P. Rogers, W. R. Yinger, William F. Lott. SEATED: Foster Lott, Virgil T. Hill, Vice Pres.

Dr. Bill Lillard and the Oklahoma City School Board met every month to discuss and act on problems and needs of the one hundred seventeen schools under their direction. The success of the school merger plan was due largely to their effective leadership. Their numbers included a patron of Northeast High School, Mr. William Yinger.

DR. BILL LILLARD
Superintendent of Schools

In his third year at Northeast High School, Mr. Leon Bruner faced a new and exciting challenge; a new school. Throughout the year he worked with the faculty, the patrons and the student body to make Northeast a fine school.

To Mr. Melvin Todd, Vice-Principal, fell the responsibilities of maintaining order and coping with a great deal of the school's administrative work. Active in all school activities, he, too helped build a new school.

Service was the main objective of this year's Student Council. The Board of Directors, made up of eight elected students from both Harding and Northeast, worked diligently with the advisory representatives to successfully carry out the projects of the year.

Toys for Tots was one of the Student Council's largest projects, although planning Homecoming activities was considered quite important, too. Sponsoring Mixers and running the Student Store also kept this year's Council busy.

Sponsors were Mrs. Ina M. Lawter and Mr. Richard LaGuardia.

COURTESY CLUB USHERS JUBILANTLY AT MANY AFFAIRS

The Courtesy Club is an ushering organization, consisting of females only. Sponsor this year was Mrs. Dorothy Ford.

The girls ushered at many performances of popular musical artists, Plainsmen, O. C. . ., Hockey, and baseball games, school functions, and many more.

Each girl was required to do a certain amount of ushering hours to maintain status in the club.

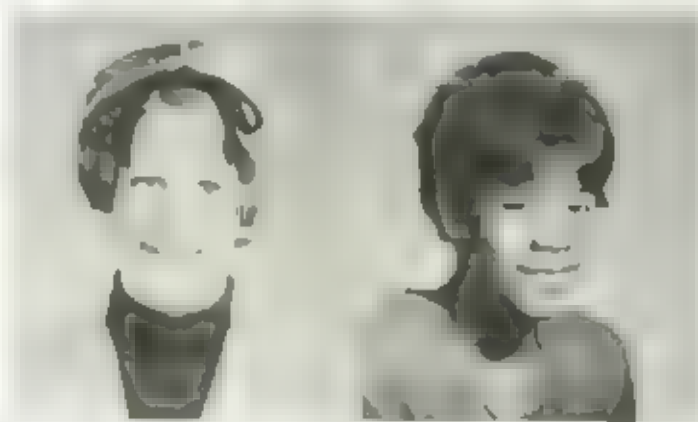

School activities for the year were collecting money for the United Appeal, the Fashion Show co-sponsored with the Key Club, and the annual Courtesy Club-Key Club dance.

UPWARD BOUND STUDENTS EXTEND EDUCATION

MEMBERS: FIRST ROW: Reta Foster, Ruthie Jones, James Robinson. SECOND ROW: Glenda Isaacs, W. Lee Rose, Patricia Smiley, Herlena Hamilton, Mildred Maxwell, and Howard Fisher.

These tutors come to Northeast to help these students in mathematics, social science, and English.

The Upward Bound Program is a program set up by the government. Its purpose is to help students both academically and culturally.

This is a year-round program. During the summer months the students go to summer school at Langston University, and during school months the students have tutors to help them in various fields. Mr. Melvin Todd is the Upward Bound counselor.

MIDDLE: Gary Kuykendall, Robert Dennis, Stanley Griffin and Mr. Jerry Anderson.

The Northeast O'Club is composed of student athletes who have excelled in their individual sport. The club, sponsored by Mr. Jerry Anderson, is always willing to serve both school and community when called upon to render a helping hand. The O'Club co-sponsored a spaghetti dinner with the Booster Club, served refreshments at basketball games, and established a yelling section at football games and pep assemblies. Under the leadership of Robert Dennis, the club attempted to increase the spirit of scholarship in athletes and build the character of its individual members. ## VIVACIOUS PEP LEADERS AROUSE SPIRIT

Spirit, personality, character, and leadership are the 'must' abilities for a Viking cheerleader.

Gwen McAfee and Emily Freede, co-heads, gave leadership when it came time to organize an outstanding group consisting of four seniors, two juniors, and two sophomores.

Together these eight girls led the enthusiastic crowd in many cheers, songs, and chants at all games, and presided over all pep assemblies.

Representing our school, they won two first-place, two second-place, one third-place, and the spirit stick three times at O. U. Thunderhawk National Cheerleaders Association Clinic, July 14-19, 1968.

NORKETS EXPLODE SPIRIT

Promoting spirit and enthusiasm at all athletic programs were the Norkets. Throughout the season the Norkets traveled with their team attending games at Norman, Guthrie, Lawton, and Liberal, Kansas.

Their new uniforms of maroon and grey could be spotted at each pep assembly. The Norkets sold programs and pep ribbons for all the athletic events, decorated the halls with spirit signs and posters before each game, and highlighted the Homecoming activities by selling mums.

They climaxed the year by undertaking the responsibility of the All-Sports Banquet held in May.

Four seniors and two juniors make up the majorette team for the band. All are required to try out in front of Mr. Donald Edwards, director, and the Marching Band.

During the year, besides marching at games and in parades, they presented various routines at pep assemblies.

New to the Marching Band this year are seven girls, leader Jackie Holleman, Inez Starr, Sharon Mongold, Darlene Cole, Betty Robinson, Takema Danzie, and Charlene Brown. None are seniors, just three juniors, and four sophomores.

Tryouts were held during the latter part of September. Their first performance was Homecoming '88.

Much time is put forth by seventy-five musical, marching students, known as the Viking 75. They learned a new performance for every game, and they can proudly say they have never repeated a show under the direction of Mr. Donald Edwards. This also included away football games in Norman, Lawton, and Liberal, Kansas.

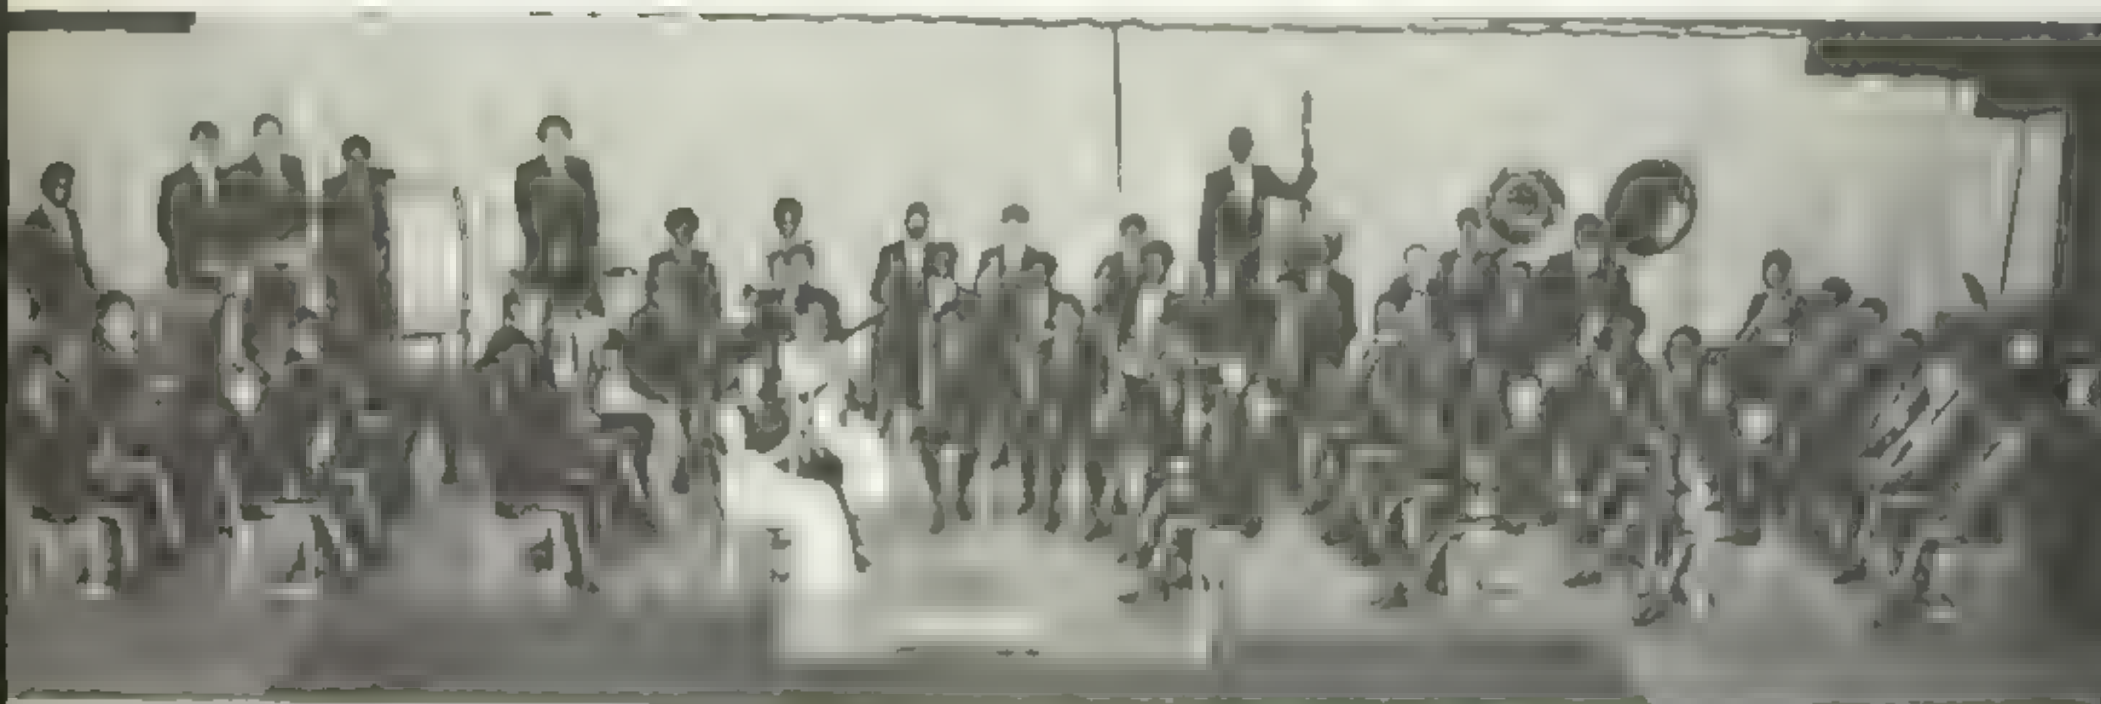

Of course, no band is complete without a parade. The Viking 75 led the Homecoming parade and participated in many rated parades, where they accomplished fine ratings and trophies for the school.

CONCERT BAND EXPLORES MUSICAL COMPOSITION

Under the direction of the band director, Mr. Donald M. Edwards, the concert band displayed its numerous talents in the field of music. The concert band performed for various assemblies throughout the school year, presented a Mid-winter concert, and participated in music contests in the spring. An outstanding event was the weekend when the concert band had an exchange concert with Wichita Falls, Texas.

The stage band of Northeast High School is a select group of talented musicians who present popular music on the student level. Directed by Mr. Donald Edwards, the stage band played for assemblies, band concerts, talent shows and the coronation of the Band Queen.

This year, under the capable leadership of Mr. Donald Edwards, the Northeast Orchestra promoted musical appreciation in various assemblies throughout the school year and attended district music contests in the spring.

MEMBERS: FIRST ROW: John Roach, Gary Voelkers, Julie Bryan, Veotus Lawrence, Carol Dennis, Kathe McKinnon, Jane Thomas.
SECOND ROW: Paula Bryan, Johann Kimbro, Carl Wamble, Mr. Donald Edwards, and Lee Gipson.

Talented Students Join

The Northeast High School Mixed Chorus is an activity course for those students interested in music entertainment.

During the year the Chorus performed at several community sing-ins; Hagee's Red Bud, Shephard Mall, and Penn Square. The Chorus also participated in various university music clinics. Their music and songs vary from secular to religious selections. The Chorus sponsored a Christmas assembly for the entire student body and a Spring Concert. They also helped in the preparation for the third annual Talent Show.

SYMPHONY HI-NOTES GAIN CULTURE EXPERIENCE

Symphony Hi-Notes is an all-city organization, sponsored by the Women's Committee of the Oklahoma City Symphony. Hi-Notes, who aren't necessarily music students, usher for all Symphony sponsored activities.

Northeast was responsible for ushering at seven concerts throughout the year, but had the opportunity to attend all events.

This year they had the chance to hear Van Cliburn, Byron Janis, Jacqueline du Pre, Michael Deatherage and Hans Richter Haaser, among a few, and to see the opera "Rigoletto" and the ballets "Giselle" and the "Nutcracker Suite." An added feature was the "Swing In" with Doc Severinson and Ramsey Lewis Trio.

Officers for the year were Gwen McAfee, president; Carl Wamble, vice-president; Faye Rogers, secretary; and Peggy Euwing, treasurer. Sponsor was Mrs. Jocelyn Love.

The NFL and Thespians practice long hours for tournament work and producing plays. Hard work pays off, however, as Northeast turned out top-notch talent in Forensic and dramatic activities. From debate to play production, the speech and drama department offered a well-rounded program to all students interested in speech. Committed to a strong tournament schedule, one-act play festivals, plus in-school play production, the Northeast speech students had a variety of activities scheduled to exercise their talents.

Mr. Robert Windsor was the sponsor for the National Forensic League and Thespians.

The Red Cross Council, with the help of a new teacher sponsor, Mr. Shelby Davis, kept busy this year with two main projects. In the spring, the council held their annual enrollment drive, which provided funds for future use. A school chest, containing school supplies which were to be shipped to Southeast Asia, was next on the council's list of projects. By the end of the year, the council felt it had been very successful.

The Science Club was one of the smallest clubs at Northeast. Its main purpose is for those students who are interested in science and the further investigation of science.

One of the new projects the science club sponsored was the Valentine Express held in February.

The officers for the 68-69 school were president, Alvis Stinson; vice-president, Gary Voelkers; secretary, Joanne Moore; and treasurer, John Roach. The sponsor was Mr. Brown Scott.

"ROMEO AND JULIET," "CHARLY" HIGHLIGHT YEAR

"The Literary Society," the nickname given to the English Club for their float in the parade, was busy on projects to raise money for the magazine they turned out at the end of the year. This magazine was made up of entries from the Northeast literary contest they sponsored throughout the year. The caramel apple and the mixer were the main activities for their money raising projects.

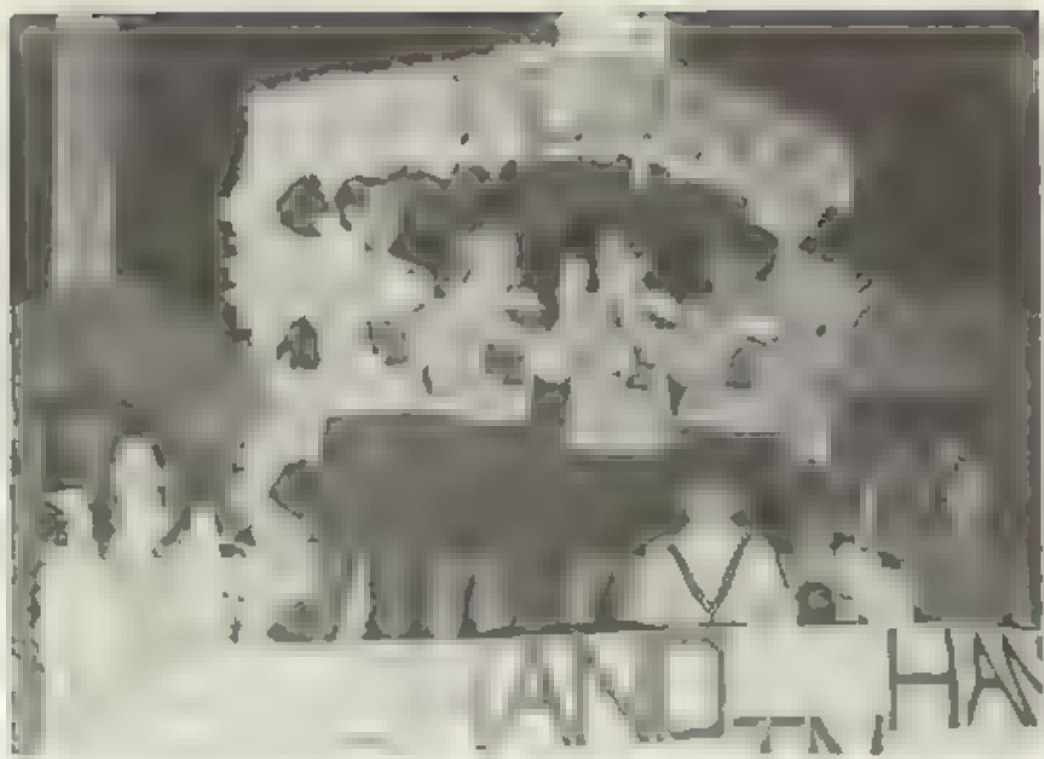

To get away from work and enjoy a little pleasure, the English Club attended the movies, "Charly" and "Romeo and Juliet."

THE MOTORCYCLE CLUB

The "N.E.H.S. High Riders" is a precision drill team for high school cyclists. The purpose of the club is to give cyclists an opportunity to do something constructive with their talents. The club also promotes good safety habits and good citizenship.

Under the leadership of Bruce Fisher, the "High Riders" were invited to perform in Ada, Chickasha, Muskogee, Wichita, Kansas and Dallas, Texas.

STUDENTS AID ESTABLISHED FACULTY

Aides lend that helping hand to the faculty at all times. Supplying their talents in various fields are office, counselor, and clinic aides, plus the unforgettable hall monitors.

Assisting Mrs. Mary Miller, Mrs. Mary Morgan, and Mrs. Mary Wilson are the office aides who type, collect absentee cards, and operate the switch board.

Helping Mrs. Reola Welborn and the Counselors, Mr. Roger Brown, Mrs. Julia Scobey, and Mr. Travis Mullins, counselor aides work mainly involves the location of students and filing of student grades and report cards.

Mrs. Eileen Ollenberger needs the undivided attention of the clinic aides. With all assortments of problems coming in to the clinic, clinic aides must be on their toes at all times.

Last but not least are Mr. Melvin Todd's hall monitors. They attempt to keep the traffic jam of NE down for eight hours a day, working in one-hour shifts.

NORSEMEN HUNT DOWN FACTS

The Norseman Scroll has presented the school with a fine example of a true journalistic profession. Regarded as one of the best papers in Oklahoma, staff members try to retain this standing by attending numerous workshops both in the state and out of the state.

Activities this year included the Howdy Hop and the Scroll Christmas Dance. The staff also traveled to Chicago for the second consecutive year to attend the National Scholastic Press Association Convention during the Thanksgiving vacation.

The Scroll Staff is a member of the Oklahoma Interscholastic Press Association, Columbia Press Association, Quill and Scroll, and Future Journalists of America.

Preparing his editorial is two year editor, Alvis Stinson.

Advertising Managers, Susie McGill and Valerie Guthrey, compile a list of businesses to contact for possible ads in the Scroll.

Assistant Editor, Dorothy Jackson proofs the final copy of the Scroll before releasing it to the student body.

The most active section of the Scroll is sports. Being participants enables Alan Cooksey, Earl Tarley and Gary Kuykendall to do a superb job.

FOR SCROLL PRODUCTIONS

Upon arriving at Northeast, Sophomores found their first year of high school offered a chance to develop their individual talents and ideas. To some, the jump from junior high to senior high school was a difficult step. The year was productive and most exciting for all. The sophomores ended the year by attaining that stage they most cherished - the upperclassman.

FOOTBALL

Northeast's football team met one of its toughest schedules this year. They fared well, however, and ended the season with a 1-5-1 record. The team, under the guidance of Coach Lonnie Gilliland and his staff, gave Viking supporters many exciting moments to remember. The Vikings began the season with a thrilling game against John Marshall. However, Northeast lost 7-0. Hopes brightened later in the season as they hurtled over McGuinness 38-0 and tromped Liberal, Kansas 25-0. The highlight of the season came at Homecoming, when the offense and defense combined to give the Del City Eagles a rough time of it. Of course, the mighty Vikings won, 40-6.

Stanley Griffin proved to be a great asset to Northeast's football team as he picked up valuable yardage for the Vikings. Stanley was also one of KOMA's "Prep Player of the Week."

ALL-CONFERENCE players from Northeast were (l. to r.): Gary Kaykendall, Mike Billings, Stanley Griffin (also an All-State alternate), Herman Simmons, Bob Egging (All-State Alternate), and Earl Talley.

Teamwork, Spirit Led The

The up and coming B-team, next year's stars, finished the 1968 football season with a 2-3-1 record. Expert ball-handling by quarterbacks Leroy Jones and Monty Barnhill, along with their tough defensive line, defeated Classen and Star Spencer and tied McGuinness. The players gained quite a bit of experience and their outstanding ability prove for an exciting season next year.

This year, Northeast's grapplers were among the best. Bob Egging, Earl Talley, and Mike Billings were great assets in the heavier weights while Joel Williams, Gary Antene, and Sherman Parker mastered the lighter weights. The team, coached by Jim Allen, played host for the Capitol Conference tourney held here at Northeast. The Vikings sent six men to the finals, and placed third in the school ratings.

BASKETBALL

The 1968-69 roundballers attacked this season with a determination to win and win again. They worked long and hard hours under the excellent guidance of coach Jerry Anderson to mold themselves into the team that would bring credit and victory to Northeast High. With every practice and game, the basketballers gained experience and polished their skills until they were a unit working for the Capitol Conference Championship. This year's Vikes were probably some of the finest athletes ever produced at Northeast, and the news media agreed by rating this year's team third in the state. Although plagued by early losses to Guthrie, rated number one, the Vikings went on to rack up another winning season for the Northeast record book.

Practicing what they preach, coaches Anderson and Hardeman relax during practice.

TRACK

The Northeast track team, coached by Mr. Ed Rotzinger, had quite a successful season this year. In running, the main strength came from seniors Luther Lauderdale and Mike Lucas. Luther has been a key figure in track for several years, and has earned the school many ribbons. Mike also has been a strong arm, placing second in the Indoor Track Meet held at the Fairgrounds Arena.

The 1969 team was also aided by Earl Talley in pole-vaulting, Gary Kuykendall, low and high hurdles, Mike Fleming, high jump, and Chuck Mason, broad jump.

GOLF

The 1969 golf team benefited greatly this year through the experience of senior Craig Sexton and junior Roy Ball. These two, along with Robert Dennis and Dan Pickeral, composed the "big four" that represented Northeast in golf tournaments. Under the instruction of Mr. Sam Chaney, the entire team represented Northeast well this season.

Craig Sexton was the top golfer and head man of the '69 team.

Harriers Race Toward Victory

Mike Fleming, George Campbell, and Steve Owens prepare to vanquish their opponents in another gruelling match.

BASEBALL

With the combined power of two schools, the 1969 Viking baseball team took the field with valuable experience and much fresh talent. Under the direction of Coach Ed Hardeman, the team prepared to meet the other contenders for the Capital Conference crown, and with fierce determination they assured themselves of continuous victories. Reinforced by returning lettermen, Jon Hansen, Richard Duncan, Monty Barnhill, Farris Qualls, James Robinson, Sam Taylor, Henry Wilson, Embry Pendarvis, and Scott Turnbull, the Vikings were assured of a well-rounded team capable of obtaining any goal.

Embry Pendarvis leaps high to escape Monty Barnhill's slide and save a double play.

One of the few returning pitchers, Joe Hassel, practices his delivery to Bill Wheat.

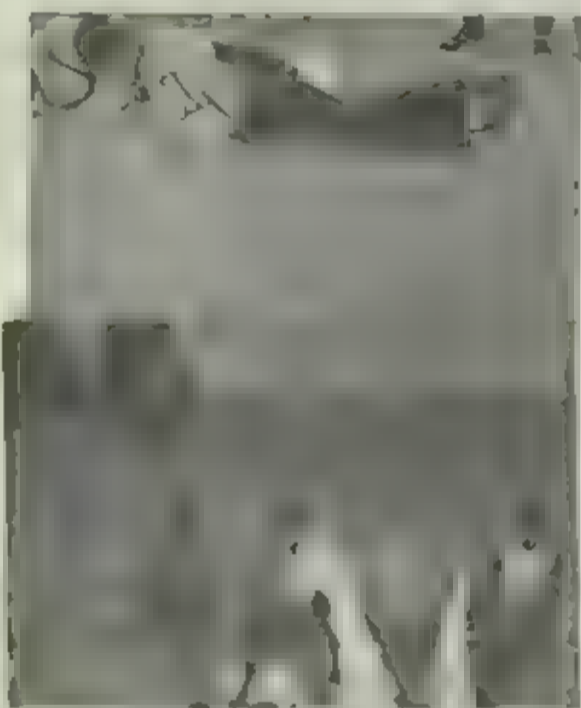

Pepper quickens reflexes as the Vikings train for a winning season.

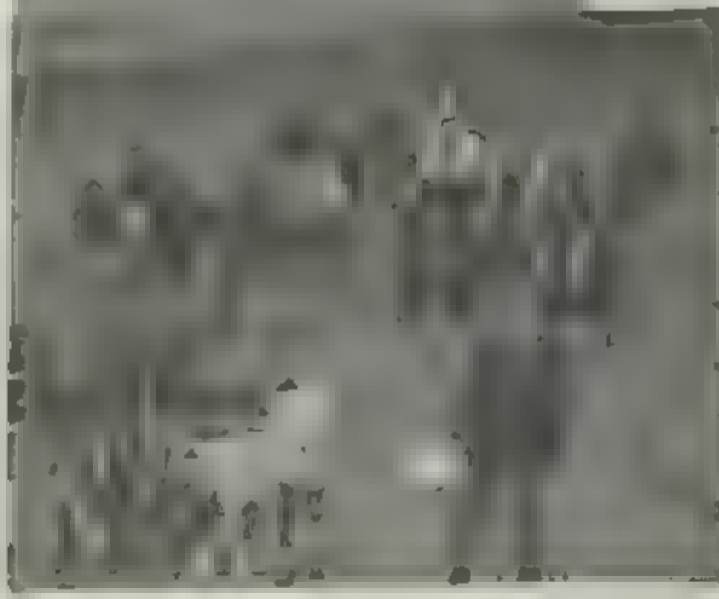

James Robinson sharpens his eye while Richard Duncan settles in behind the plate for a long, hard season.

SPECTATORS

Since the beginning of athletic competition spectators have played an integral part in the contestant's quest for victory. Without the motivation stimulated by the moral support only a concerned fan can provide, the competitor has no compensation. The only reward an athlete derives from his endeavors is the thrill of victory or the approval of the on-lookers generated by his efforts to succeed. In more ways than one the competitor relies upon the spectator for the restoration of his faith after defeat and for the desire to strive for higher goals after victory.

Joanne,
 who know
 for quite awhile
 but never knew you personally until this year. Best of luck always at your last year of H.E.
 "9.69"
 Linda
 Simmons

Joanne
 made it through
 Mr. Cole's class. It a relief to know you're through. I hope you'll see the future.
 Best of luck
 Judith Rucker

To Joanne, you are a very nice girl with an amiable personality.
 Stay sweet & good luck!
 (Linda Simmons
 '70)

Joanne - well, the year has gone by, and so quickly too. First hour wouldn't have been the same without you. You helped me through the year. I have enjoyed getting to know you and hope you have a good summer and that next year is the best yet.

Joanne
 you are such a sweet girl. You are really admirable.

I know you will really go far in life. Good luck always.
 Love Darlene

Love
 Susan Howell

Joanne,
 I have really enjoyed knowing you this year. You are one of the few true individuals
 I know. My best wishes always.

Jo McDermott

Joanne,
 I have been busy in typing
 this year (Larassing Mrs.
 Maguire) Stay sweet and be good.
 "Good Luck"
 Cindy Barnes

Signed Scott

Joanne,
Well, we made it again, didn't we? I'll never (no matter how hard I keep trying!) I forget our little how!
It's been great knowing you!
We're both so muthy - How can we stand each other? Be good!
See ya next year!
Love,
Joan Bravo (S. 70)

Joan
F. 1.
Joan

see and her

Joanne Glad I got acquainted with you. See ya next year (maybe!)

Love,
Jo 70! Janet

Joanne,
We had a great year. I'm glad we got to know each other a little better (other a little nuts!) Now I know your summer. Have a good you & I'll see when we become seniors.
Joan Bravo (S. 70)
